

TMX Information Processor

Sequence Issue Involving CDF - CSE Resolved

Attention TMX Information Processor Clients

Yesterday an automated refresh on the CDF-CSE at MCC occurred which resulted in the TCF and MCC feeds being out of sequence.

Due to a monitoring issue, the standard alert was not generated. This has since been identified and the sequence event has been resolved. The monitoring issue is being addressed over the weekend.

We apologize for any issues this may have caused.